Copyright

Starting with Archivaria 56 (Fall 2003), authors of articles, reviews, notices, obituaries, and letters have formally granted Archivaria a non-exclusive license to publish and distribute their work in the journal; however, since the journal's inception, authors have retained the copyright in their work. Archivaria maintains the most recent eight issues in a Reserved Collection that is available only to members and subscribers; all requests for permission to reproduce articles from the Reserved Collection should be directed to the general editor. Requests for permission to reproduce articles from the earlier issues (in the Main Collection) should be directed to the individual authors. Any reproduction of a work must include an acknowledgement of its original publication in Archivaria.
